The Member Impact Fund awards are given in partnership with member financial institutions to communities in their districts to become more vibrant places to live and work. This is the second year that FHLB Des Moines offered the Member Impact Fund, which is designed for members to directly strengthen communities within targeted areas in its district.

First Bank of Montana’s Branch Manager, Chris Mattson, states, “Supporting our community and surrounding areas is a primary focus of First Bank of Montana. We are proud to be able to help in providing a safe and ADA accessible set of bleachers for all ages of our community. First Bank of Montana feels the community is very important and working with the school is an essential part of keeping our community alive.”

Chester-Joplin-Inverness Public Schools is an educational institution tasked with educating the youth of the Chester, Joplin, and Inverness communities to help them become successful adults through conventional education and athletics.

These funds will be used to make the school’s football bleachers ADA accessible per ADA requirements. The current bleachers were built of wood in 1980 and have reached their end of life.

“The new bleachers are fully ADA accessible and will ensure that all fans are able to watch the games comfortably. Our community has been extremely generous in donating money to our bleacher project, and we are incredibly grateful to First Bank of Montana for their generous donation. Amazing things happen in small towns when local businesses and the community work together. Thank you, First Bank of Montana, for your continued support!”
